

Invest in Your Future !

The juwi group, with an annual revenue of approximately 900 million US-Dollars and more than 700 employees worldwide, ranks among the leading companies in the field of renewable energies in Germany. Since 1996 we have planned, projected, funded and operated sites for the use of regenerative energies-wind, solar and bio-energy. In order to realize our vision of sustainable energy supply we operate globally.

For the enforcement of our US team at our office in Lawrence, KS we offer the position of

Project Manager – Wind Energy

Tasks

- Preparation, coordination and optimization of cost effective wind farm layouts, coordination and preparation for structural engineering design, access roads, crane paths, electrical systems, substations, switchyards, transmission lines, etc
- Evaluate selected wind turbine type, land boundaries, geotechnical and environmental studies, topography, wind analysis, regulations, permits and other constraints.
- Recommend alterations in development and design
- Coordinate efforts of project team of engineers, finance professionals and external stakeholders.
- Maintain and provide detailed project reporting
- Negotiates agreements with land owners for contract terms and conditions.
- Oversee all aspects of permitting process including environmental reviews and transmission research
- Prioritizes studies, permits and letters of determination to shorten time to completion
- Conducts market research
- Prepares and conducts presentations to land owners, county, state and government authorities
- Coordinates layout and design plans with Germany teams on turbine layouts, wind research assessment, etc.

Position Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree in business or Science
- 2 -4 years of experience in the field or related area
- Strong organizational skills
- Self-motivated with high commitment

Contact

Submit your resume with job title: "Project Manager Wind Kansas" and include salary expectations to:
Recruiter1@bradleypartnerships.com